LOCAL TALENT PLAY
GREAT SUCCESS

The entertainment given by local talent at the school auditorium last Friday evening was a decided success, and all who attended declared it one of the best ever given in Lancaster.

Every number was good, and showed splendid talent and careful training.

The score, or more, of little girls dressed in their nighties bearing their "go to bed" candles and singing with their sweet childish voices "The Jingaboo Man," presented a picture of more than usual beauty.

The songs and choruses were specially pleasing, in fact, one seldom sees such ease and grace displayed by amateurs.

In a scene from the "School of Scandal," Miss Pauline Marion was a vision of loveliness as she appeared as the fashionable wife of Sir Peter Teazle. (W. B. Cauthen, Jr.) playing to perfection the part of old grouchy Sir Peter.

Especially good was "Bill" Pleyer, as Henry Primrose, in love with his young ward Ellen Murry. (Miss Beulah Lingle,) and when it was discovered that Charlie Connally, as Henry Thornton, was also in love with Ellen, the audience expected a scene of ardent wooing and were not disappointed.

The "elderly ladies" Misses Biffin and Winterblossom, were decidedly the "hit" of the evening, Miss Lynch and Miss Freddie Knight playing these difficult parts.

In fact, Lancasters local talent is A-1 in every respect, and any time the people have an opportunity of attending an entertainment given by them, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers association, we feel sure that they will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunity.

The styles are elevating the waist line to such an extent that we saw one maid wearing a corsage bouquet on her hat.—Columbia Record.

SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. R. E. Wylie entertained Friday at a family dinner in honor of Mrs. W. J. Montgomery and Miss Montgomery of Concord, and Mrs. J. G. McCants of Winnsboro. A crystal basket of white narcissi formed the centerpiece of the long table at which dinner in several courses was served. The place cards carried out the Easter idea, with wishes appropriate to the season.

Col. and Mrs. Leroy Springs entertained Friday evening at a beautiful auction bridge party in honor of Miss Shirley Montgomery of Concord, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Witherspoon. In the drawing room and library red tulips added a note of color and the places at the card tables were marked by kewpie place cards. Miss Montgomery was presented with the guest prize as well as the ladies prize for top score, both being silk hose. Mayor Charles D. Jones won the gentleman's prize, a silver cigar cutter. At midnight elaborate refreshments in five courses were served and dancing brought this pleasant evening to a close.

THE ACTUAL FOUNDATION of the BUSINESS WORLD

NINE-TENTHS of the business of the world is done by checks. Why not do yours that way?

Your money is safer in a good bank than anywhere else. It is at your call at any time and you can pay it out simply by writing your check, a cleaner way than handling the actual bills and silver. Then, too, the check is a good receipt for payment, for, of course, the payee can't get the money—your money—from the bank, until he receipts for it.

We accept small accounts and are glad to get them

DEATH OF
W. R. ROBINSON

A Prominent Citizen of Lancaster County.

The death of Mr. W. R. Robinson occurred at his home some three miles east of the city last Friday, April 21, the cause being paralysis. He was in his seventy-fifth year, having only celebrated his last birth day April second.

Mr. Robinson was a thorough going, loyal citizen, and at the outbreak of the war he joined the "Lancaster Greys" being a member of the company, serving under the late Captain John D. Wylie, and proved himself indeed a brave and gallant soldier.

He is survived by two brothers, N. E. Robinson of this county, and W. T. Robinson of Mecklenburg, and nine children (first wife) J. C. Robinson, R. T. Robinson, Mrs. O.

H. Watson of Kershaw county and Tom Robinson of Texas; (second wife) E. G. Robinson, Mrs. W. H. Blockmon, Mrs. J. E. Langley and Mrs. C. H. Everall of this place.

Mr. Robinson joined the Baptist church in early life and lived thereafter a christian life. He was buried at Antioch Saturday at one o'clock, services being conducted by his pastor, Rev. B. F. Carson.

CHILDRENS DAY AT BETHEL CHURCH

Childrens day was observed at Bethel church Easter Sunday with a suitable program. Interesting addresses were made by the editor of the Monroe Enquirer, B. C. Ashcroft, Hon. C. N. Sapp, formerly one of the local community boys and now assistant attorney general of the state, and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Merritt.

As a result of the meeting, twenty-five new members joined the church. A large number of people were present.
